	CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL
COUNTR',	Czechoslovakia
ropic	1. Troops and Military Installations in Teplice Lazne
	2. Proops and Hilitary Installations in Bohosudov and Velvety	25 X 1
EVALUATION	PLACE OBTAINED_
ATE OF CONTER		25 X 1
ATE OBTAINED_	DATE PREPARED 8 November 1954
EFERENCES		25 X 1
AGES 1	ENCLOSURES . (No. & TYPE)	THE STREET OF THE PERSON OF TH
EMARKS		Provide Contract for Strategic Contract
		Ber bendalapkeres ""agaptika yelesperte, Jakobs sarayayi
		25 X 1
	This is UNEVALUATED Information
1.	of the former Hotel Bodlik between former Gruener Ring Gasse and ul. Dlouna (formerly Lange Gasse) in Teplice Lazne (N 51/F 34). Three tiered bedsteads were observed in the rooms of the building from outside. Soldiers wearing khaki uniforms and carrying targets were frequently seen leaving the installation. The total of men stationed at these billets was estimated to be about 200 soldiers. The unit received marksmanching training in the soldiers.	25X1
2.	ul. Dlouha (formerly Lange Gasse) in Teplice Lazne (N 51/F 34). Three tiered bedsteeds were observed in the rooms of the building from outside. Soldiers wearing khaki uniforms and carrying targets were frequently seen leaving the installation. The total of men stationed at these billets was estimated to be about 200 soldiers. The unit received marksmanship training in the wooded area near Pritkov (Judendorf) about 4 kilometers north of the Teplice Lazne railroad station. This area was temporarily closed to the civiliens. No motor vehicles or heavy weapons were observed in connection with the unit. No border guard (PS) units or headqu rters were stationed at Terlice Lazne, but PS soldiers who came from or went to Cinvold (Zinnwald: N 51/F 25) were frequently observed at the railroad station. No military billets other than the former Hotel Bodlik were located in Teplice Lazne.  Prior to the beginning of the summer of 1954, numerous young officers who wore khaki uniforms were observed in the former priests' seminary in Bohosudov (Karieschoin: N 51/R 74).	25X1
2.	ul. Dlouha (formerly Lange Gasse) in Teplice Lazne (N 51/F 34). Three tiered bedsteeds were observed in the rooms of the building from outside. Soldiers wearing khaki uniforms and carrying targets were frequently seen leaving the installation. The total of men stationed at these billats was estimated to be about 200 soldiers. The unit received marksmanship training in the wooded area near Pritkov (Judendorf) about 4 kilometers north of the Teplice Lazne railroad station. This area was temporarily closed to the civiliens. No motor vehicles or heavy weapons were observed in connection with the unit. No border guard (PS) units or headquarters were stationed at Teplice Lazne, but PS soldiers who came from or went to Cinvald (Zinnwald: N 51/F 25) were frequently observed at the railwood station. No military billets other than the former Hotel Bodlik were located in Teplice Lazne.  Prior to the beginning of the summer of 1954, numerous young officers who wore khaki uniforms were observed in the former priests' seminary in Bohosudov (Mariaschein: N 51/F 34). They outnumbered the öther soldiers who were stationed there.	25X1 25X1
2.	ul. Diouha (formerly Lange Gasse) in Teplice Lazne (N 51/F 34). Three tiered bedsteads were observed in the rooms of the building from outside. Soldiers wearing khaki uniforms and carrying targets were frequently seen leaving the installation. The total of men stationed at these billets was estimated to be about 200 soldiers. The unit received marksmanship training in the wooded area near Prittov (Judendorf) about 4 kilometers north of the Teplice Lazne railroad station. This area was temporarily closed to the civilians. No motor vehicles or heavy weapons were observed in connection with the unit. No border guard (PS) units or headquarters were stationed at Terlice Lazne, but PS soldiers who came from or went to Cinveld (Zinnwald: N 51/F 25) were frequently observed at the railwood station. No military billets other than the former Hotel Bodlik were located in Teplice Lazne.  Prior to the beginning of the summer of 1954, numerous young officers who were khaki uniforms were observed in the former priests' seminary in Bohosudov (Mariaschein: N 51/F 34). They outnumbered the other soldiers who were stationed there.  Prior to the summer of 1954, numerous civilian workers went from Teplice Lazne to the area of the former ammunition depot near Velvety (N 51/F 34) in buses belonging to a special bus line. Numerous Czech soldiers were frequently observed at the site. The laborers were mainly woren. It was known in Terlice Lazne that unhealthy work was done in this plant. The workers' hir looked burnt and grew reddish.	25X1 25X1
3.	ul. Dlouha (formerly Lange Gasse) in Teplice Lazne (N 51/F 34). Three tiered bedsteeds were observed in the rooms of the building from outside. Soldiers wearing khaki uniforms and carrying targets were frequently seen leaving the installation. The total of men stationed at these billets was estimated to be about 200 soldiers. The unit received marksmanship training in the wooded area near Pritkov (Judendorf) about 4 kilometers north of the Teplice Lazne railroad station. This area was temporarily closed to the civiliens. No motor vehicles or heavy weapons were observed in connection with the unit. No border guard (PS) units or headquarters were stationed at Terlice Lazne, but PS soldiers who came from or went to Cinvald (Zinnwald N 51/F 25) were frequently observed at the railroad station. No military billets other than the former Hotel Bodlik were located in Teplice Lazne.  Prior to the beginning of the summer of 1954, numerous young officers who wore khaki uniforms were observed in the former priests' seminary in Bohosudov (Kariaschein: N 51/F 34). They outnumbered the other soldiers who were stationed there.  Prior to the summer of 1954, numerous civilian workers went from Teplice Lazne to the area of the former ammunition depot near Velvety (N 51/F 34) in buses belonging to a special bus line. Numerous Czech soldiers were frequently observed at the site. The laborers were mainly women. It was known in Terlice Lazne that unhealthy work was done in this plant. The velvety has a special bus unhealthy work was done in this plant.	25X1 25X1

CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL